

Aly Stetyick

Consultant & Facilitator

Charlotte, NC

Aly is a pragmatic Consultant and Facilitator with a strong background in the design, analysis, and application of research in the workplace. She draws from professional experience and rigorous interdisciplinary training to provide practical, actionable, and data-supported recommendations for modern organizations.

Prior to joining Stellar in Spring 2021, Aly worked with a variety of clients as an organizational effectiveness consultant. She has successfully managed job analyses, workload assessments, and competency modeling projects. She has also assisted with product development and executive assessments.

Aly earned her undergraduate degree in Organizational Development from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. She earned her Master's degree in I/O Psychology from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, where she is currently pursuing a PhD in Organizational Science. She currently serves as the Vice Chair of the North Carolina I/O Psychologists Association.

Aly grew up just outside of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She now lives in Charlotte, North Carolina with her dog, Artemis, and cat, Raven. Aly enjoys hiking, camping, and kayaking throughout the natural beauty of the Southeast. Closer to home, she spends her time volunteering, attending concerts, and creating art.

Boundless.
